FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Following a successful showing at the IHSA (Intercollegiate Horse Show Association) Equestrian Team in Missoula, Mont. earlier this month, the Rocky Mountain College equestrian team heads to Bozeman, Mont. on Nov. 20-21, 2010.

“We're all excited for this upcoming show in Bozeman. This is the biggest equestrian team we've ever had at Rocky Mountain College and it's fantastic to have such strong riders. As a larger team we have girls competing in almost every class, which gives us a stronger chance at winning high point team,” said Christi Brown, RMC equestrian studies instructor and team coach.

The team is hoping to have each member qualify for the regional show which will take place February 21, 2011, at the RMC’s equestrian program home at the Intermountain Equestrian Center in Billings, Mont. A good showing there could qualify members for the semi-national and national show later in 2011
