Bookstore Valentine’s Special Offered by Chanteuse

BILLINGS, Feb 12, 2014 – Although she selects or sells scintillating RMC-branded products, textbooks, and office supplies, the greatest public offering of Marian Green, bookstore manager at Rocky Mountain College, resides in her throat. A singer of jazz standards and new compositions, Green has headlined concerts regionally and led the Marian Booth Green Quartet in concert. She last performed in November 2013, singing with the RMC Jazz Ensemble in the historic Babcock Theatre in downtown Billings. Her next engagement comes at Walker’s Grill restaurant downtown, Sunday evening, March 23.

Green offers a Valentine’s Day Special at the RMC Bookstore. Through Valentine’s Day, shoppers get 20% off the highest-priced item in a purchase. Separate purchases might thus bring 20% discounts for each. The bookstore is open weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in Bair Family Student Center.

Bringing financial chops to the bookstore, Green served as a financial advisor for Morgan Stanley in Billings after taking a degree in business accounting from University of Montana.

Green exemplifies RMC engagement with the community. For 35 years she has cherished volunteering as a Big Sister to local girls. For more than 25 years, she has served on the boards of both Big Brothers and Sisters of Yellowstone County and Planned Parenthood of Montana.
