

Resources for Solving Problems

This is a list of contacts and resources for questions or problems students may encounter. Whenever you call an office and you get voicemail, be sure to leave your name and a telephone number that can be used to call you back.

Question/Problem	Contact	Location	Phone Number
Immigration, employment, personal concerns, almost anything	Amber West-Martin, Director of International Programs	Morledge-Kimball Hall 005	406.657.1107
Rooms, roommates, housing	Your resident assistant, residence hall director, or the Director of Residence Life	Your resident assistant and hall director are in your residence hall. The Director of Residence Life is in Bair Family Student Center 117.	406.657.1051
Study skills, difficulty with classes	1) Your professor 2) Your academic advisor 3) The Office of International Programs 4) Assistant to the Academic Vice President	Office of International Programs – Morledge-Kimball Hall 005 Assistant to the Academic Vice President – Morledge-Kimball 312	406.657.1107 406.657.1020
Registration, drop/add classes, transcription, graduation	Office of Student Records	Eaton Hall 11	406.657.1030
Fee payments	Business Office, Student Accounts	Eaton Hall 13	406.657.1010
Harassment of any type	Brad Nason, Vice President for Student Life Faculty/staff you trust	Bair Family Student Center 114	406.657.1018
Illness or minor injuries	RMC Student Health Service, open 8:30 – noon on weekdays	Fortin Education Center	406.657.1068
Career planning and placement, internships	Director of Career Services	Bair Family Student Center 116	406.657.1039
Spiritual needs, counseling, religious activities/groups	RMC Chaplain	Bair Family Student Center 14	406.657.1098
Counseling	Campus Counselor	Alden Hall 106	406.657.1049